

Seaside Church Guild to Stage Benefit Style Show

A Parisian Fantasy theme will mark the Mother-Daughter Fashion Show and Tea, sponsored by the Seaside Church Women's Guild, May 11, 1 p.m., at the church, 230th St. and Ocean.

Mothers and daughters will be served at colorful cafeterias by the men of the church.

Fashions ranging from the very young miss to ladies' apparel will be modeled by members from the various church groups, including tots, teens, and the women's guild. An added feature will be styles for the tall-miss.

Proceeds from the show, which is held annually the Saturday before Mother's Day, will be used to further the varied work of the church from missionary to purchasing church equipment.

Information and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Merlin Aldred, 5337 Linda Dr.

Mrs. Clyde Martin is in charge of the entire fashion show. The committee chairmen are Mmes. Roy Burt, program; Albert Adkins, fashion; Dean Gulbransen, tickets; Willard

Engaged Pair Honored at Clever Party

Gathering at the beautifully decorated home of the R. J. Peytons, 27996 Palos Verdes Drive, East, Rolling Hills last Thursday evening for a lovely and unique miscellaneous shower were over 60 friends and relatives of Barbara Shanahan, Torrance and Michael Koller, South Gate, whose wedding will be solemnized Aug. 11.

The bride-elect was completely surprised, and as the couple took their special places before the guests, Barbara's life was unfolded in pictures, music and verse. Narrating the program was Elise Thorson, Gardena, and those taking part in the singing were Shirley Moran, Lomita; Donnice Mosher, Rolling Hills; Karen Reynolds and Bill Leal, Long Beach; Henry Meisner and his wife, Orpha, at the piano, Palos Verdes. Songs from Barbara's high school and college days were rendered, closing with "I Love You Truly" sung by Bill Leal and "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Henry Meisner.

Advise to the benedict-elect was cleverly written from a woman's viewpoint and presented by the hostess, Mrs. Lucille Peyton. Advice from several of the men present was put into humorous verse and read by Mr. William Reynolds, Long Beach.

At the climax of the program an album containing photographs and poetry presented, was given to the couple along with a tape recording of the program. Unwrapping of their many lovely gifts and refreshments followed.

CHURCH DINNER

Tockey, decorations, assisted by Roger Shriefer, Howard Miller and Evan Terry, refreshments; Enrique Rendeon and Merlin Aldred, publicity and door prizes, and Mr. Roy Burt, serving chairman.

Open House At Nursery School May 10

Friday evening, May 10, has been set for open house at the Torrance Nursery School which is held at the First Methodist Church, El Prado and Manuel, in Torrance.

Members and the director of the school would like to better acquaint the community with the purpose and function of the only cooperative school in this area for pre-school children ages 3 to 5.

Torrance Nursery School is particularly unique in that it is sponsored by the Adult Education Dept. of the Torrance Unified School District. This not only helps to defray the tuition cost per family, but shows the Torrance School District is interested in children of all age levels.

The nursery school extends a cordial invitation to all interested persons to observe and enjoy an evening devoted to learning how the director, children, and participating parents operate a cooperative pre-school.

A great amount of work and planning by the members will make this a memorable evening. Mrs. Don McLean and Mrs. Ralph Carr will delight the guests with songs the children like to sing and hear by playing the autoharp and guitar. Mrs. George Champion and Mrs. Henry Morgan will be there to welcome the guests and answer questions concerning the school. Mrs. Milton Barter, the school director, is arranging appropriate displays of paintings, clay-work, books, etc., that the children engage in during a typical school day. Prospective members can talk to Mrs. Harrison McCandless and Mrs. Ray Richhart.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Clark Williams. Coordinator for the open house is Mrs. Dean Fisher.

SISTERHOOD SALE MAY 9-11

Excellent values in men's, women's and children's clothing will be offered by the Temple Menorah Sisterhood at the rummage sale to be held at 112 N. Catalina on May 9, 10 and 11 from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p.m. according to Mrs. Jack Belford, chairman.

There will also be special tables of household items for sale. Proceeds from this fund-raising project assist in the support of Temple Menorah's religious school.

Another Sisterhood event being planned at this time is a square dance to be held Saturday, May 25. A professional caller will lead the dances.
